

SLPL's Spellbinding Pages Autumn 2026

Letter from the Director:

Our Summer Fun Club activities have wrapped up, and our dedicated staff get a brief respite from the increased summer traffic. Just look at some of our Fun Club stats: 1,341 kids and 906 adults attended the 61 youth programs planned by Miss Melissa. In addition, 413 kids, 70 teens, and 184 adults tracked their summer reading to enter raffles for a multitude of cool prize packages put together by Miss Marilla and Miss Candice. We love to see so many members of our community take advantage of all our library has to offer, and we're doing our best to continue that momentum into the Fall and Winter. In addition to Fall programming for kids, Miss Claire and our Friends group have a full slate of programs for adults, from monthly trivia and craft nights to book discussion groups and engaging speakers. Throw in all of the best new books and quick access to 500,000+ items from our partner LCLC libraries, and you are guaranteed to find something to inspire your imagination and connect with your community. We look forward to seeing you!

Executive Director, Mark Sullivan

Things will look different in our catalog at the end of September...

for your leisure reading -

Aspen Discovery is an open-source library catalog interface offered to members of SPARK (the Pennsylvania Integrated Library System, or PAILS).

Managed in partnership with the Equinox Open Library Initiative, it modernizes how patrons browse and access library resources across Pennsylvania. Key Benefits of Aspen Discovery for SPARK Libraries

- Unified Searching: Merges physical books, e-books, audiobooks, and digital databases into a single search window.
- Personalized Recommendations: Delivers customized reading suggestions based on patron search history and preferences.
- Smart Grouping: Combines different formats of the same book title (e.g., paperback, Kindle, and audiobook) into one clean result.
- Account Management: Allows patrons to easily renew items, and manage holds from a mobile-friendly dashboard.

Juvenile Book Reviews

Juvenile Non-Fiction

Sticking to the Facts: 10 Ways to Fight Misinformation - Gregor Craigie

Could there be a more important book for kids these days? Or for grown-ups, for that matter. It can be so overwhelming to think about determining whether everything seen online is true or false. Most kids want the truth, if they can figure it out. This helpful guide lists 10 concrete steps they can take to evaluate information...from considering the source and asking the experts, to being a skeptic (not a cynic.) Sidebar bumpouts give quotes, vocabulary, and real examples of famous fakes throughout the pages. While it might be a lot for a kid reading on their own, this book is perfect for parents to work through with their middle-schoolers and beyond. Cheerful and colorful illustrations make it easy on the eyes. Part of the OrcaTake Action!series, this important read will arm your children with information! Which is way better than being armed with...misinformation.

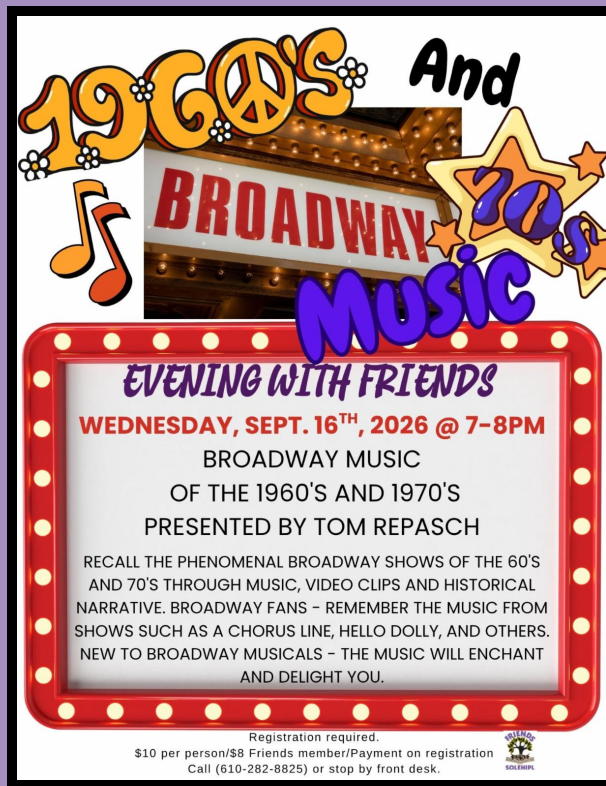

Juvenile Fiction
Pocket Potter series - J.K. Rowling

Harry. Hermione. Ron. Dumbledore. Luna. They're all here in these guidebooks, beautifully illustrated by Paola Escobar. Perfect for long-time fans who have devoured the original books multiple times, or for newbies who are interested but rather put-off by the immense page count (912 pages! for Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix.) Almost like a character profile guide, there are lists of achievements, so many quotes, and all the important facts. The series will continue with not-yet-released Hagrid and Dobby guides. Spend an hour in the wonderful world we all love and delve deeper into your favorite characters!

In the Loop

Great for Homeschooling and more reading Grades Pre-K through 3rd

Follow the Path...to our Digital Resources tab under databases If your scroll all the way down to BookFlix, A Scholastic online literacy resource pairs classic video storybooks from Weston Woods with related nonfiction from Children's Press and other trusted Scholastic imprints. This engaging resource for children in grades pre-K through 3 will help early readers develop and practice essential reading skills and introduce them to a world of knowledge and exploration.

Each BookFlix unit includes the following elements:

- Watch the Story
- Read the Book
- Puzzlers
- Meet the Creators
- Lesson Plan

Parent and Child-

BookFlix is an excellent interactive program for parents to experience with their children. Parents and caregivers can bring their 4- to 8-year-old children to the library to spend some time exploring the program together. Or you can access the program at home through your library's remote access system. Older brothers and sisters may also enjoy helping their younger siblings navigate the topics and stories in BookFlix.

All the fiction/nonfiction pairs in BookFlix are categorized according to nine themes: Animals and Nature, Earth and Sky, Family and Community, People and Places, Music and Rhyme, ABC's and 1, 2, 3's, Adventure, Imagination, and Celebrations. Each topic includes a pair of books, one fiction and one nonfiction.

With topics and stories appropriate for the learning skills of preschoolers through grade three, BookFlix makes learning fun and interesting, as children learn the difference between fact and fiction.

fall

"Even now I remember those pictures, like pictures in a storybook one loved as a child. Radiant meadows, mountains vaporous in the trembling distance; leaves ankle deep on a gusty autumn road; bonfires and fog in the valleys; cellos, dark window-panes, snow."

~ Donna Tartt, The Secret History

"Is not this a true autumn day? Just the still melancholy that I love—that makes life and nature harmonize. The birds are consulting about their migrations, the trees are putting on the hectic or the pallid hues of decay, and begin to strew the ground, that one's very footsteps may not disturb the repose of earth and air, while they give us a scent that is a perfect anodyne to the restless spirit."

~ George Eliot
